PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Twenty-Seventh Edition

The South Carolina Higher Education Statistical Abstract is a comprehensive, single-source compilation of tables and graphs which report data frequently requested by members of the coordinating board, staffs of colleges and universities, the legislature, state government officials and the general public.

Located in the Abstract are the latest statistics on enrollment, degrees awarded, faculty, tuition and fees, funding and other factual data. A glossary of terms used is included in the back of the Abstract.

The Abstract would not have been possible without the assistance of the college and university institutional representatives' completion of the Commission's reports and the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). The help and support of these individuals are extremely important to the Commission's data collection process and related reports. Their assistance is greatly appreciated.

Higher Earnings are Parallel with Higher Levels of Education

The bars in this graph show median earnings at each level of education. In 2003, the average full-time year-round worker in the United States with a four-year college degree earned over $49,000, 62 percent more than the $30,800 earned by the average full-time year-round worker with only a high school diploma. Those with master's degrees earned almost twice as much, and those with professional degrees earned over three times as much per year as high school graduates. Median earnings for those with some college but no degree were 16 percent higher than those for high school graduates, and adults with associate's degrees earned 22 percent more than high school graduates.<sup>1</sup>

Graduation Rates

One of the most talked about educational indicators in South Carolina (and in the nation) is the “graduation rate” of a college or university. What is it exactly? How is it figured? Why is it important? And perhaps, most importantly, what can this number, often expressed as a percent, tell us about quality at our colleges and universities?

First, it is important to understand that South Carolina originally devised the graduation rate calculation in response to a question raised by the South Carolina Legislature as part of ACT 255 of 1992. At that time the Legislature wanted to know, “How many years does it take for a first-time college student to graduate from a public college or university in South Carolina if the student goes to school full-time and does not change institutions?” All of the public colleges and universities met with the Commission on Higher Education and agreed upon a process to calculate a graduation rate, which in turn would answer this question.

The data has since been standardized on a national level. The National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in its ongoing effort to report on the condition of postsecondary education in the United States started an effort in 1997 to collect data on completion or graduation rates and transfer-out rates of full-time, first-time certificate or degree-seeking undergraduate students. This collection has been identified as the Graduation Rate Survey (GRS) and is a component of the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS).

“These data will provide comparable graduation rate statistics for all postsecondary institutions in the nation. The data will also provide much needed information to researchers as an institutional outcome measure and it will offer insight into the relationship between the changing demographics of college-going cohorts within different types of institutions” (Form IPEDS-GRS-2, page 2). The information collected can also be used by institutions for the Student Right-to-Know Act. Additionally, cohort data has been added for athletes enabling this graduation data to be provided to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) by NCES.

THE SAT PROGRAM

The SAT I: Reasoning Test and the SAT II: Subject Tests, the primary components of the SAT Program, are designed to assess many of the skills that are important to students' success in college. Because the subject matter of high school courses, as well as grading standards varies widely, the tests have been developed to provide a common standard against which students can be compared. Most students also complete the optional Student Descriptive Questionnaire (SDQ) when they register to take SAT Program tests, providing valuable contextual information to aid in interpreting and understanding individual and group scores.

"The College Board announced that average SAT® verbal scores this year rose one point to 508, building on last years three-point verbal score gain. College Board President Gaston Caperton said that following years of flat verbal scores, he hopes the recent score gains are the beginning of an upward trend.

Average math scores fell one point from last year to 518, though the overall math trend remained positive. Average math scores are up 14 points compared to 10 years ago.

Scores among female SAT takers rose one point on the verbal section, to 504 this year, while their math scores dropped two points to 501. Scores for male SAT takers remained unchanged at 512 for verbal and 537 for math.

The number of SAT takers among the high school class of 2004 rose to an all-time high of 1,419,007. This marks the 14th year in a row that the total number of exam-takers has risen.

New SAT Will Debut in March 2005

This year's high school juniors, students in the class of 2006, will begin to take a new SAT in March 2005. The new test will include a writing section with a student-written essay, higher-level math, and more reading passages.

"The new SAT will continue to assess how students apply what they have learned in school," said Caperton. "With the addition of the writing section, it will be even more valuable in assessing the academic skills students need to succeed in college and in today's workforce."

A broad cross section of the nation's leading colleges [have] established that scores from a standardized writing test will be a requirement for admissions. Nearly 60 percent of public flagship colleges have committed to requiring writing. In addition, about 64 percent of colleges in the major athletic conferences and almost all Big Ten, PAC-10, and Atlantic Coast Athletic Conferences will require writing. Average scores for the first class of students to take the new SAT will be reported in August 2006."

Statewide Scholarships and Grants

Administered by the SC Commission on Higher Education

Palmetto Fellows Scholarship

The Palmetto Fellows Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship program that was established in 1988 to recognize the most academically talented high school seniors in S.C. and encourage them to attend college in the State. Each Palmetto Fellow may receive a scholarship of up to $6,700 annually, less any other gift aid received. The scholarship must be applied toward the cost of attendance for a maximum of eight full-time terms of study toward the first baccalaureate degree at a participating senior institution in S.C. Students receiving Palmetto Fellows Scholarship cannot also be a recipient of the LIFE or HOPE Scholarship. In order to submit an application during the high school senior year, students must meet the following minimum requirements:

- (1) 1200 SAT/27 ACT
- (2) 3.5 cumulative GPR on the Uniform Grading Scale (UGS)
- (3) Rank in the top 6% of the class

To renew the Palmetto Fellows Scholarship, students must earn 30 credit hours each academic year and a cumulative 3.0 grade point average.

Legislative Incentives for Future Excellence (LIFE) Scholarship

The LIFE Scholarship Program is a merit-based program that was established in 1998 to provide incentives for students to be better prepared for college and to increase access to higher education. Students attending an eligible two-year or technical institution may receive up to the cost-of-tuition plus a $300 book allowance toward the cost-of-attendance each academic year (The two-year independent institution may award up to the average cost-of-tuition at the State's two-year regional campuses). Students attending an eligible four-year institution may receive up to $4,700, not to exceed cost-of-tuition, plus a $300 book allowance toward the cost-of-attendance each academic year.

In order to qualify, first-time entering freshmen attending a two-year or technical college, must earn a 3.0 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, based on the S.C. Uniform Grading Scale at the end of the senior year.

In order to qualify at a four-year institution, first-time entering freshmen must meet two of the following three criteria:

- (1) 3.0 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, based on the S.C. Uniform Grading Scale
- (2) 1100 SAT/24 ACT
- (3) Rank in the top 30% of graduating class

To renew or earn the LIFE Scholarship, students must earn a minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average on a 4.0 scale consistent with the policies and procedures of the institution for graduation purposes and earn a minimum of 30 credit hours if a rising sophomore; 60 credit hours if a rising junior; or 90 credit hours if a rising senior.

Students may receive a LIFE Scholarship for a maximum of two terms for a one-year certificate or diploma program, four terms for an associate's degree program or a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a baccalaureate degree, eight terms for a baccalaureate degree or 10 terms for an approved five-year baccalaureate degree program.

SC HOPE Scholarship

The SC HOPE Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship that was established under the 2001 S.C. Education Lottery Act and implemented in fall 2002 to provide funding for students who do not qualify for a LIFE or Palmetto Fellows Scholarship. Funding for this program is dependent upon lottery proceeds. Students may receive up to $2,500 plus a $150 book allowance toward the cost-of-attendance for the first year of attendance only. In order to qualify, first-time entering freshmen attending a four-year institution must earn a cumulative 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale based on the Uniform Grading Scale upon high school graduation.

The HOPE Scholarship is only for the freshmen year. The student can then qualify for LIFE, if he or she meets the continued eligibility criteria (3.0 cumulative GPA and 30 credit hours by the end of the freshman year).

Lottery Tuition Assistance

The Lottery Tuition Assistance Program was established under the 2001 S.C. Education Lottery Act and implemented during the fall 2002 term. Since funding for the program is dependent upon lottery proceeds and the number of eligible students, the actual award amount is determined on a term-by-term basis. Each academic year, students must meet the following minimum requirements in order to be eligible:

- Be a S.C. resident;
- Be enrolled in at least six credit hours each term as a degree-seeking student at an eligible two-year S.C. institution;
- Make satisfactory academic progress toward the completion of the degree requirements;
- Does not owe a refund or repayment on any federal/state aid or be in default on any student loans;
- File the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Form;
- Must not be eligible for or a recipient of a LIFE, Palmetto Fellows, or HOPE Scholarship.

To renew Lottery Tuition Assistance, students must earn a cumulative 2.0 grade point average after attempting 24 credit hours.

High school students participating in dual enrollment courses at eligible two-year institutions are eligible to receive funding from Lottery Tuition Assistance. Students must complete the FAFSA and be enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours.

S.C. Need-based Grants

The S.C. Need-based Grants Program was established in 1996 to provide financial assistance to the state's neediest students. Students may receive up to $2,500 annually if enrolled full-time and up to $1,250 annually if enrolled part-time. Based upon the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) Form, the institution at which the student is enrolled determines the exact award amount, less any other gift aid received. The Grant must be applied directly toward the cost-of-attendance for a maximum of eight full-time equivalent terms.

To renew a Need-based Grant, students must earn a requisite number of credit hours based upon their enrollment status and earn a cumulative 2.0 grade point average.

Glossary

Academic Support - Funds to provide support services for an institution's primary missions – instruction, research, and public services.

Allocation - An authorization to incur obligations and to make expenditures during a stated period of time, for a specified purpose, and not to exceed the amount provided in the authorization.

Appropriation - A legislative authorization that permits government agencies to incur obligations and to make payments out of the treasury for specified purposes. An appropriation usually follows enactment of authorizing legislation. An appropriation act is the most common means of providing budget authority, but in some cases the authorizing legislation itself provides the budget authority.

Auxiliary Enterprise - An entity that exists to furnish goods or services to students, faculty, or staff, and that charges a fee directly related to, although not necessarily equal to, the cost of the goods or service.

Budget - A plan for the accomplishment, within a definite time period, of programs related to established objectives and goals, setting forth estimates of the resources required and the resources available (usually in comparison with one or more past periods) and showing future requirements. Also, a request for funds to pay the operating cost of the government.

Capital Budget - A budget that deals with large expenditures for capital items normally financed by borrowing. Usually, capital items have long-range returns and useful life spans, are relatively expensive, and have physical presence (buildings, roads, and sewage systems).

CHE Formula or MRR - A numerical mechanism used to determine funding needs (costs), CHE recommendations to the legislation for funding, and to provide for equitable sharing of state available resources, of public higher education institutions. Also see page 89 for reference to MRR.

Debt Service - All payments in connection with funds borrowed by an institution, e.g., principal payments, interest payments, payments to reserve and to ensure proper upkeep and maintenance of the facilities, trustees' service charges, legal expenses and other items related to indebtedness.

Earmarked Revenue - Funds from a specific source to be spent only for a designated activity.

Expenditures - The cost of goods delivered or services rendered, whether actually paid or unpaid, for the operation of an institution and for addition to its plants or payment of an obligation.

Full Funding - Provision of budgetary resources to cover the total cost of a program or project at the time it is undertaken.

Incremental Funding - The provision or recording of budgetary resources for a program or project based on obligations estimated to be incurred within a fiscal year when such budgetary resources will cover only a portion of the obligations to be incurred in completing the program or project.

Glossary

Institutional Support - Central executive-level activities concerned with management and long-range planning of the entire institution, such as the governing board, planning and programming, legal services, etc.

Operating Budget - The current year budget that guides agencies' everyday activities.

Public Service - An activity that is established primarily to provide non-instructional services beneficial to individuals and groups external to the institution.

Research - Systemic, intensive study directed toward fuller scientific knowledge or understanding of the subject studied.

Restricted Current Funds - Resources provided to an institution that have externally established limitations or stipulations placed on their use. Externally imposed restrictions are to be contrasted with internal designations imposed by the governing board on unrestricted funds.

Revenues - Revenues result from: the rendering of services and is measured by the charge made therefore to the students, sponsors, and others; gains from the sale or exchange of current fund assets; interest and dividends earned on investments; sale of goods; and other increases arising from or for the support of current fund operations, for example, gift, gifts applied, and appropriations.

Various Extraordinary (Below-the-Line) Funding FY 2004-2005

Since the inception of the use of a methodology to determine the needs of higher education institutions in South Carolina, the Commission has recognized that there are certain costs that are extraordinary to individual institutions and are not included in the methodology. In recognition of these extraordinary costs, the state legislation specifically provides funding for those costs which meet certain criteria specified by the Commission. Below is a listing of items and funding, by recurring and non-recurring categories, for FY 2004-2005.

FACILITIES OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

Colleges and universities conduct a wide range of activities in pursuit of their missions as institutions of higher education. The physical facilities of an educational institution affect all segments of the institution and must effectively provide the level of service necessary to support the institution's objectives in fulfilling its mission.

The degree to which each institution's facilities fulfill any or all of the functions necessary to its mission depends in a large measure on the goals of the institution, its size, and the availability of resources. An institution's facilities must be adequate to serve the programmatic needs of the institution. However, many outside factors often conflict with this overriding requirement. These include changing enrollment patterns, which necessitate flexibility in functional use, proliferation of codes and standards, increasing costs for operation and maintenance, and austere funding.

The effective allocation and utilization of physical facilities is essential if an institution of higher education is to meet its objectives in the areas of instruction, research, and public service.

FACULTY IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Higher education institutions have changed dramatically in the past 20 to 30 years as a workplace. Essentially, an institution is a workplace of two cultures: faculty and administrators. In the past, the faculty has been the dominant group affecting the conditions of the workplace with administrators being subservient to the influence of the faculty. Today the role and importance of each group has changed considerably and each affects the other as the institution adjusts to a rapid environmental and social evolution.

Faculty are pivotal resources around which postsecondary education revolves. They determine curriculum content, student performance standards, and quality of students' preparation for careers. Faculty members perform research and development work which can advance this nation's technological and economic well-being. Through their public service activities, they also contribute to the public good.

Performance Funding In South Carolina A Brief History and Background

Act 359 of 1996 amended sections of the South Carolina State code relating to the Commission on Higher Education (in particular Section 59-103-5, et seq.) to dramatically change the mechanism for determining state funding of public higher education. The legislation mandated that the Commission, in consultation with institutions and other key stakeholders, develop and use a performance system for determining institutional funding. The law specified that the quality of higher education institutions could be measured by considering nine critical success factors with 37 indicators suggested to measure those nine areas, and provided a three-year phase-in period to develop a system that would base all funding of public higher education in South Carolina on performance.

To meet its mandate, the Commission on Higher Education (CHE) developed a two-part plan: 1) a determination of financial need for the institutions – resulting in the Mission Resource Requirement (MRR) to identify the total amount of money an institution should receive based on comparable costs for institutions of similar mission, size and complexity of programs and 2) an evaluation process whereby each institution's performance on identified measures is rated and funding is allocated contingent on the ratings. Developed in 1996-97 and substantially revised in 1999, the plan was phased in over time so that by the third year, as required, an assessment of performance on all indicators as listed in law (§59-103-30(B)) determined all general operating funding.

The Commission has continued to work with the 33 public institutions in South Carolina to refine and improve the system since its inception. Major changes to the system from that as initially adopted occurred in the first full year of implementation (FY99 measurement impacting FY00 allocations.) In that year, a change in scoring provided for ratings on each performance indicator to be on a 3-point scale rather than the 6-point scale. Additionally, a scale was applied to the resulting overall average performance score so that dollars were allocated on the basis of five performance categories rather than individual overall scores. Many of the indicator measurement definitions have changed since they were first defined in 1996 and 1997. Most such changes occurred in FY00, which impacted FY01 allocations, with changes to definitions occurring to a lesser degree the following years. In FY01, the method for identifying the standards used to determine performance changed from a system whereby each institution negotiated its own benchmarks to one where standards were determined for sectors of institutions based on available national, state and regional data and peer data. Additionally, during that same year, the Commission added a component to the three-point indicator scoring scale to provide recognition of individual institutional improvement over past years. The last significant revision occurred effective with FY02 and involved a reduction in the number of indicators used in determining overall institutional performance from 37 to 13 or 14 key indicators. The reduced set of indicators had been identified by the Commission working in consultation with institutions and other key stakeholders as those that had proven to be most informative and useful in assessing performance and were best reflective of sector and institutional missions.

The Commission publication “Performance Funding Workbook: A Guide to SC’s Performance Funding System for Public Higher Education” provides the latest details on SC’s performance funding system and measures used in determining performance. This publication and additional details are available on the Commission’s website www.che.sc.gov .
